10-2-2.Original Detection Method

- When the photo receptor receives the reflected light of the two LEDs at an intensity that exceeds a predetermined level, the detection system determines that an original is placed within the Setting Distance of the Sensor.

